

Earl Warren College Study Abroad Scholarship Application

The Warren College Study Abroad Scholarship is open to Warren College students participating in a study abroad program during Summer or Fall 2017.

Deadline to Apply: Tuesday, April 4, 2017

Return your completed application to the Warren College Academic Advising Office, CSE 1137

A Warren College committee will review all scholarship applications and notify selected recipients by April 21, 2017.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

Scholarship applicants must:

- Be in good academic standing
- Be a registered full time student at UC San Diego
- Have sophomore standing by the time the study abroad program begins
- Meet all the requirements and prerequisites for the study abroad program chosen

SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION ESSAY

Applicants must demonstrate:

- A strong connection between the student's academic program, performance, and study abroad goals
- That the chosen program will provide educational experiences the applicant might not otherwise have
- A plan to share their experience with the Warren College and UC San Diego communities upon returning
- Financial need

Attach a 500-word, single-spaced essay, in response to the following questions:

- Why are you interested in studying abroad?
- Why should you be selected for this scholarship?
- What is your academic purpose for participating in this study abroad program?
- How will your experience studying abroad assist you in your future goals?
- How do you plan to share your experience abroad at the college or campus level when you return?
