

Principle Member Confirmation

Principle members are the only student organization members authorized to do business with the University on behalf of the registered student organization. Please indicate your acceptance of the following responsibilities and return this form confirming your status as a principle member to the Warren College Student Affairs Office.

By registering as a Principal Member:

- I assume responsibility for the financial status, actions, and programs of my student organization.
- I grant the Dean of Student Affairs Office permission to share my information with other necessary University departments and to contact me for organization business purposes.
