Welcome to Earl Warren College

It is my great pleasure to welcome you to the Earl Warren College family. The Warren College staff and our faculty affiliates across the UC San Diego campus are eager to introduce to you to our academic community, which is guided by the Warren College motto: “Toward a Life in Balance”. We look forward to working with you to craft an educational journey that balances intellectual exploration, professional preparation, and social opportunities. As a network of faculty and staff working together to support your education, we offer a range of expertise to help students like you make critical decisions at key points along their educational journeys.

Our Academic Advising staff mentors students through important decisions such as selecting majors, determining whether to study abroad, and assembling a feasible yet challenging array of courses. Likewise, our Student Affairs staff provides programming throughout the year to engage the Warren student body in residential, leadership, and co-curricular opportunities that produce well-rounded citizens with strong social and professional grounding. We are focused on meeting the unique needs of both resident and commuter students by offering a variety of engaging social, athletic, and cultural programs and events that contribute to a balanced college experience.

Every student who enters Warren College has unique needs, so please let us know how we may assist you in your transition to life at UC San Diego. We are grateful to share this educational journey with you.

Sincerely,

Emily Roxworthy, Ph.D.
Provost, Earl Warren College

The Warren Legacy

Earl Warren, a native Californian, made many contributions to the state. He served as district attorney of Alameda County, attorney general of California, and then as governor from 1942-1952. Following his years of public service in California, Warren served as chief justice of the United States from 1953-1969.

The Warren Court mandated a doctrine of fairness in such areas as criminal justice, voting rights, legislative districts, employment, housing, transportation, and education. Warren joined the ranks of the most profoundly influential chief justices in the history of the Supreme Court.

In his honor, Warren College explores the relationship between leadership and social justice. Warren students and faculty represent all of the disciplines offered at UC San Diego.

UC San Diego Principles of Community

These principles of community are vital to the success of the University and the well-being of its constituents. UC San Diego faculty, staff, and students are expected to practice these basic principles as individuals and in groups.

- We value each member of the UC San Diego community for his or her individual and unique talents, and applaud all efforts to enhance the quality of campus life. We recognize that each individual’s effort is vital to achieving the goals of the University.
- We affirm each individual’s right to dignity and strive to maintain a climate of justice marked by mutual respect for each other.
- We value the cultural diversity of UC San Diego because it enriches our lives and the University.
- We celebrate this diversity and support respect for all cultures, by both individuals and the University as a whole.
- We are a University that adapts responsibly to cultural differences among the faculty, staff, students, and community.
- We acknowledge that our society carries historical and divisive biases based on race, ethnicity, gender, age, disability, sexual orientation, religion, and political beliefs. Therefore, we seek to foster understanding and tolerance among individuals and groups, and we promote awareness through education and constructive strategies for resolving conflict.
- We reject acts of discrimination based on race, ethnicity, gender, age, disability, sexual orientation, religion, and political beliefs, and we will confront and appropriately respond to such acts.
- We affirm the right to freedom of expression at UC San Diego. We promote open expression of our individuality and our diversity within the bounds of courtesy, sensitivity, confidentiality, and respect.
- We are committed to the highest standards of civility and decency toward all. We are committed to promoting and supporting a community where all people can work and learn together in an atmosphere free of abusive or demeaning treatment.
- We are committed to the enforcement of policies that promote the fulfillment of these principles.

Argument is central to academic work. Scholars and scientists are expected to support their conclusions with convincing reasons and compelling evidence. Informed argument is equally important in planning and policy discussions, political decisions, and judgments in a court of law. Even in everyday conversation, we are sometimes challenged to justify our opinions and support our assertions.

In the Warren College Writing Program, students practice reading and writing complex academic arguments using primary and secondary sources. Classes are seminar-size and center on discussion of student work.

Freshmen
It is recommended that each incoming freshman student complete the two-course sequence in Warren Writing (WCWP 10A and 10B) within four quarters following successful completion of the UC Entry Level Writing Requirement. All students entering as freshmen are required to complete Warren Writing courses at UC San Diego.

Transfer Students
Incoming Warren transfer students are required to complete WCWP 100: Academic Writing. WCWP 100 is a seminar-style course that offers instruction and practice in the composing of analytic arguments. Transfer students are encouraged to take WCWP 100 as soon as possible, as this course can fill up quickly.

The purpose of the Warren Writing sequence is to enable undergraduate students, through intensive practice, to read and write academic arguments in preparation for their work in various academic disciplines. In our courses, students learn:

- to analyze academic arguments and make thoughtful decisions and connections based on that analysis;
- to practice all aspects of the writing process;
- to generate ideas for writing using a variety of processes;
- to make a claim that is informed by multiple sources;
- to incorporate premises and evidence to support a claim;
- to cite sources appropriately (according to academic conventions and University policies);
- to integrate sources effectively (using sources in support of one’s own position);
- to incorporate various kinds of feedback into effective revision;
- to develop the ability to reflect on one’s own thinking and writing and to use what is learned on future writing projects.

http://warren.ucsd.edu
At Warren College, we understand the value of life both in and outside of the classroom. We work with you to develop experiences that support your classroom efforts as well as expand your learning opportunities beyond the walls of the classroom. We provide activities and services that enhance your student experience and exemplify our motto: Toward a Life in Balance.

A UCSD education includes a rich array of co-curricular opportunities enabling students to explore their interests, expand their knowledge, and launch the next phase of their lives, whether it is graduate education, the workplace, or other pursuits. The Student Affairs staff works with students to develop programs and services that are designed around the following developmental goals:

Think Critically and Solve Problems
Critical thinking and innovative problem solving are needed to address challenges facing the world today on all levels, personal to international. Students are exposed to a variety of ideas and positions that they are asked to believe or take action upon. As students are challenged to solve complex, non-routine problems and put forth their own ideas and arguments, skillful, responsible critical thinking and problem solving is required.

Plan for Personal, Academic, and Professional Success
Throughout their college careers, students will develop and employ a personal strategy to gain the most from their college experiences and transition into their future.

Communicate Effectively
Effective communication is necessary for meaningful participation in college, the workplace, and society as a whole. Essential communication skills include the ability to write well, present before an audience, form positive relationships, and communicate one-on-one and in groups.

Engage in a Healthy Lifestyle
Students’ physical and emotional well-being serves as a foundation for learning. To be healthy on an emotional level, students are resilient and able to cope with conflicts that might compromise their academic performance.

Lead in a Diverse Global Society
During and after college, students will work in or interact with complex organizations composed of diverse people and must coordinate their activities to achieve certain purposes. Leadership takes place in a variety of organizational structures, including non-hierarchal organizations, composed of co-leaders, peers and followers. Leadership is not solely an individual pursuit; it is a role that is shaped by circumstances and relationships. Leadership also has a global dimension; graduates of UC San Diego are likely to work or collaborate with people from other cultures and nations.

Promote Social Justice and Community Responsibility
An educated, engaged, and responsible citizenry is essential to a just society. Being an educated citizen in an increasingly pluralistic society requires sensitivity to global perspectives, an appreciation for diverse cultures, and knowledge of historical inequities. Responsible citizens better society through ethical and impact-sensitive actions in settings ranging from local communities to global arenas.
Getting Involved on Campus

Getting involved on campus will help students make friends and feel comfortable, but it also has other important benefits. Students who are involved on campus report being more satisfied with their college experience and are more likely to succeed academically. Involvement also helps students apply what they are learning in class to real world situations and helps develop skills that most employers look for, such as communication, organization, the ability to work in teams, and the ability to work well with diverse groups of people. Take time to learn more about some of the ways to get involved at Warren.

Forums: Forums are drop-in groups that meet throughout the academic year and do not require weekly attendance. Drop-in attendance at a forum is welcomed.

Online Resources: The CAPS website has a variety of online resources. Students can listen to relaxation audios in a variety of languages, complete online mental health screenings, and find a variety of other resources.

When you are ready to make an appointment at CAPS, call (858) 534-3755 or go to the Central Office in Galbraith Hall and request to schedule a first-time appointment. CAPS is open 8:00 am-4:30 pm, Monday through Friday.

You will be offered the earliest available appointment based on your preferences (e.g., day, time, location, specific staff person, etc.). Appointments are generally available within 1-2 weeks of your request. However, at times of peak demand, the wait can be longer. You may request a specific staff person on the basis of gender, sexual orientation, ethnicity or location, but it will possibly mean a longer wait until an appointment becomes available.

Urgent Appointments

Although CAPS generally operates on an appointment basis, there are occasions when a problem or crisis feels too overwhelming to wait for a scheduled appointment. If this is the case, make this known when you call. CAPS Urgent Care hours are Monday-Friday, 8:00 am-4:00 pm.

After normal hours and during holidays/campus closures, an on-call counselor can be reached for urgent psychological consultations by calling (858) 534-3755, select Option #2.

For life threatening emergencies or if anyone is in immediate danger, call 911.
The residential life staff is an integral part of the student affairs unit at Warren College. The department oversees all aspects of residential life and works to develop a sense of community in Warren College. The residential life staff consists of a director of residence life and two assistant directors of residence life, a facilities/financial assistant, an administrative assistant, and paraprofessional staff members including resident assistants, community coordinators, a community development intern, and a programming intern.

Residential life encourages students to take the initiative to develop meaningful relationships with their roommates, floor mates, building mates, and other members of our residential community. Our staff develops and implements a variety of programs and events (social, educational, and cultural) for students to attend. Residents are encouraged to provide suggestions or ideas to further enhance the quality of living in the residential neighborhood. Our goal is to empower community members to become positive and engaged members of the Warren residential community.

The Residential Life Office is located on the upper level of the Canyon Vista Administration Building. Office Hours: 8:00 am-12:00 pm and 1:00 pm-4:30 pm, Monday-Friday. The Residential Life Office can be reached at (858) 534-4581 or warrenreslife@ucsd.edu. For more information, visit http://warren.ucsd.edu/res-life/welcome.html.

Residential life policies are listed below. For residential procedures, visit the Warren College residential life website at http://warren.ucsd.edu/res-life/policies.html.

Resident Assistants (RAs)
Resident Assistants (RAs) are the members of the residential life staff who are most visible to students living on campus. They are undergraduate students who have undergone a rigorous selection and training process. They live in the Warren residential complex and work with residents to develop a sense of community, facilitate open and sensitive communication among apartment/suitemates, and organize a multitude of activities including, but not limited to, social, recreational, educational, and cultural activities. RAs are involved with many college and campus-wide activities and are a knowledgeable source of information. RAs are also responsible, should the need arise, for reminding residents that there are rules and regulations to abide by while living in the complex.

Each night, an assigned resident assistant is on duty to help professional staff deal with immediate concerns or questions. The professional staff can be reached through the duty RA. The duty RA is available nightly in the Student Activity Center from 4:30-11:00 pm and on call the rest of the night in his or her apartment or room. If residents are locked out of their room after office hours, the duty RA can help them get into their apartment, suite, or room. There are three courtesy lockouts (free no charge) per year; $10 is charged to the resident's student account for each additional lockout. After the hours listed above, call the campus police at (858) 534-HELP (4357). The duty RA can be reached weekdays after 4:30 pm and all weekend at (858) 962-8635. Follow the instructions on the answering machine if it is after hours.

Community Coordinators (CCs)
Community Coordinators work closely with RAs to assist in community-building throughout the Warren residential complex. As former RAs, their primary role is to assist in the management of RAs and mentor resident assistants in community programming and roommate mediation.

Community Development Intern
The community development intern (CDI) is a position developed specifically to work with CleRHCs, Warren College’s Residential Hall Council. The CDI is the CleRHC’s Chair and assists with the development of student leaders within this organization. The CDI also works closely with the Warren Residential Life professional staff and the community coordinators to help the resident assistants in their programming efforts.

Programming Intern
The programming intern (PI) hosts weekly programs at the Student Activity Center (SAC) with the help of a staff of 4-5 programming assistants. The PI also works closely with the Warren Residential Life professional staff and the community coordinators to help the resident assistants in their programming efforts.
Residential Life Facilities
Warren residential facilities consist of: Warren Residential Life Office, Canyon Vista Restaurant, Earl’s Place, and the Student Activity Center (SAC). The Warren residential complex consists of four apartment buildings (Black, Brennan, Douglas, and Goldberg), three residential halls (Frankfurter, Harlan, and Stewart), and two single graduate student apartment buildings (Bates and Brown Halls). Residential buildings in the undergraduate complex are named after Supreme Court Justices who served on the United States Supreme Court alongside Chief Justice Earl Warren.

Programming Spaces
All requests to use the facilities MUST be reserved through the Residential Life Office. The facilities include SAC Equality Room, SAC kitchen, amphitheater, volleyball courts, and Warren lawn. All student organizations, including recognized college organizations, must obtain approval from the Warren Residential Life Office regardless of prior registration with CSI. The order of reservation priority is as follows: Warren residential life staff, Warren residential life organizations, Warren College organizations, and other UC San Diego CSI-registered student organizations. Alcohol may not, under any circumstances, be served or consumed in any public space. Groups reserving a particular space assume full responsibility for keeping the space clean and in good condition. Non-residential organizations will be assessed a usage fee and must leave a cleaning deposit to reserve any facility in the Warren residential complex.

Student Activity Center (SAC)
The Student Activity Center features a large room available for programming, meetings, speakers, educational and cultural programs, and other activities, as well as a small kitchen area in which to prepare light refreshments. A rental fee may be applicable for reservation of the rental space. Groups using this programming space are responsible for the setup and cleanup. Visit http://warren.ucsd.edu/res-life/sac.html for more information about SAC.

Student Lounges
There are student lounges located on most floors of the residential halls and on the first floors of Black and Goldberg Halls. These lounges are used for RA programming as well as studying. The Canyon Vista administration building houses JK Wood Lounge which is a study lounge. JK Wood Lounge is open weekdays, 8:00 am-1:00 am; weekends, 11:00 am-1:00 am; and open 24-hours a day during finals week.

Laundry Facilities
Each of the apartment buildings has its own laundry room on the first floor. Residential halls have laundry rooms located on the second, third, and fourth floors depending on the building. The laundry rooms feature Triton Cash-compatible automatic washers for $1.25 and dryers for $1.00 per load. Malfunctions of the laundry machines should be reported to HDH Customer Service, (858) 534-2600. Tampering with laundry machines may result in disciplinary or legal action. The facilities are for resident use only.

Mailboxes
Mailboxes for Warren residents are located at the Student Activity Center (SAC) and next to the Residential Life Office located in the Canyon Vista Administration building. Mailboxes are accessible 24-hours a day. All mail, including packages, should be addressed in the following manner:

First and Last Name
Mail Box Number
9450 Gilman Drive
La Jolla, CA 92092-0100

Mail is delivered Monday through Saturday. Students are prohibited from using their personal campus mailbox for business purposes. Business mail addressed to personal mailboxes will be returned to the sender. Problems with mail service or mailboxes should be reported directly to the Residential Life Office.

The Dining Plan
UC San Diego residential housing fees include a dining plan consisting of Dining Dollars that may be spent in any amount at any Housing and Dining Restaurant or Place and Market location. Unused Dining Dollars expire at the end of each school year.

Two Housing and Dining Services facilities are located in the heart of the Warren Residential complex. With four specialty stations, Canyon Vista Restaurant boasts a wide variety of international cuisine and the most expansive salad bar on campus. Earl’s Place, located above Canyon Vista Restaurant, offers an incredible selection of gourmet espresso drinks, grab-and-go foods, grocery, and gift items.

Learn more about Dining Dollars (buy up plan), Canyon Vista Restaurant, Earl’s Place and Market, and other campus dining options at http://hdh.ucsd.edu.

Warren College Residential Life Policies

At UC San Diego we believe you will find living on campus is an integral part of your education. As a result of your community living experience, we hope that you will develop a concern and respect for others; make responsible choices and decisions about a lifestyle that suits you best; share your academic, social, and cultural experience with other students; and learn to live peacefully in close quarters with a diverse group of people. We encourage you to work toward developing a positive involvement in your community, based on your rights and responsibilities as a resident living on campus.

As part of the housing contract, everyone who chooses to live in our residential communities must abide by the rules and regulations of UCSD, which include the UCSD Student Conduct Code; the UCSD RESNET Acceptable Use Policy; all applicable local, state, and federal laws; and the Housing and Residential Life policies outlined below. All of these guidelines are here to establish a safe and secure living environment and to support your success as a UCSD student. Any student who anticipates or observes a potential violation of policy is expected to immediately remove herself/himself from the environment in which the violation may occur. One's presence during any violation of University or Housing policy ultimately condones, supports, and/or encourages the behavior or potential violation of policy.

It is important to realize that students living in a group environment affect each other's lives in many ways – we strongly believe that one's actions demonstrate one's commitment to respecting differences. In addition, we will not accept ignorance, humor, anger, alcohol or substance abuse as an excuse, reason, or rationale for behavior. Certain shared responsibilities such as mutual cooperation, inclusion, and respect are integral to any successful group living situation. It also means accepting personal responsibility for how your everyday actions affect others living with you as roommates and neighbors.

Establishing a positive and supportive residential environment means each individual must make occasional adjustments in personal habits, attitudes, and beliefs. Successful on-campus living, whether in the residence halls or apartments, means exercising your rights while recognizing your responsibilities in respecting the equally legitimate rights of the other members in your community. Residential life policies are subject to change throughout the course of the year. For the most up-to-date policies, visit the Office of Student Conduct website at http://studentconduct.ucsd.edu.

In accordance with the University of California San Diego (UCSD) Single Undergraduate Residential Housing Contract, every UCSD student who lives in or enters our residential communities must abide by the rules and regulations of UCSD: the UCSD Student Conduct Code, the Housing and Residential Life policies contained herein, the UCSD RESNET Acceptable Use Policy, and all applicable local, state, and federal laws. Violations of the rules and regulations may become the basis for disciplinary action. Additionally, breach of any term/provision of the Single Undergraduate Residential Housing Contract may result in contract cancellation prior to move-in or termination of the contract after move-in.

1. Alcohol: California State Law, University policies, the UCSD Student Conduct Code, and/or these Housing and Residential Life policies prohibit those under the age of twenty-one (21) from the consumption, possession, or receipt of alcohol. Further, said policies prohibit those over the age of twenty-one (21) from providing alcohol to anyone under the age of twenty-one (21). Residents are responsible for their behavior at all times, and may be responsible for that of their guests (see Guest or Visitor Behavior policy). Listed below are the specific campus-wide, undergraduate, Housing policies regarding alcohol:
   a. Students Who Commute

Commuter students comprise a significant portion of the entire UC San Diego population. Active involvement is an important part of the college experience, and studies have shown that students who are involved in co-curricular activities actually do better in school than those who are not involved. Both UC San Diego and Warren College offer a broad spectrum of services and programs to involve students in educational and co-curricular opportunities.

Commuter Lounges
Commuter lounges offer a place to relax, meet people, and study. Several locations on campus are designed specifically for commuters. Warren College offers two commuter lounges: one in the Warren Administration Offices (CSE/EBU 3B); and The Courtroom, a 24-hour space, located next to the Warren shuttle stop.

The Price Center offers a Commuter Concourse which features group study rooms, a computer lab, a kitchenette, and vending machines. The Commuter Concourse is home to the All Campus Commuter Board and the All Campus Transfer Association. The lounge is open 24 hours Monday through Thursday and is conveniently located on level 1 of Price Center East near the campus shuttle stop.

For a full list of campus commuter lounge locations, visit http://students.ucsd.edu/campus-services/technology/campus-study-locations.html.

Computer Labs
- Treehouse Lounge, above the General Store in the Student Center, provides a bank of computers and printers, comfortable couches, and chairs.
- Geisel Library, first and second floors, offer workstations; see the Research Assistance Desk for help and login.
- Price Center has more than 20 computer stations throughout the building.

The Benefits of Commuting
- Mastering the art of time management - commuters learn how to make the most of their time on campus by filling gaps in their class schedule with involvement opportunities and study groups.
- Commuters are more likely to gain professional skills by holding a job.
- Commuters may have an easier time maintaining good communication with their families, because they may see them more regularly.
- More opportunity to participate in family traditions and celebrations.

Childcare
The UC San Diego Early Childcare and Education Center is open to the children of UC San Diego students, staff, and faculty. Parents who meet income guidelines may be eligible for subsidized care. For information and/or a wait list application, visit http://child.ucsd.edu or call (858) 246-0900.

Rent a Locker
Need a place to store your stuff? The University Centers offer commuter students the opportunity to rent a locker online at lockit.ucsd.edu. Choose from 3 locations:
- Price Center East, level 1
- Price Center West, Food Court
- Student Center

Off-Campus Housing Directory
UCSD University Centers provide a free directory of rental and roommate listings posted by landlords and roommates exclusively for the UCSD community. If you have questions about the service, call (858) 822-4987.

Triton Bikes Program
Triton Bikes transforms abandoned bikes into a convenient campus transportation alternative. Bikes are equipped with wire baskets and locks, and are available at the Gilman parking office, weekdays 7:00 am-5:00 pm. Bike and helmet rentals are free to UCSD students (must be 18). Did You Know?

Most student organizations and campus events are open to all students. Several organizations actively seek commuter student and transfer student involvement and input in their programs.

What to do with breaks in your schedule

- Find an on-campus job. Typically, campus employers are able to work around your class schedule, and the hours are flexible.
- Spend break time reading or doing coursework. Students often find it easier to study on-campus in the Library or one of the many student lounges across campus than they do at home where there are other distractions.
- Form a study group with other students in your class and get to know classmates while completing coursework.
- Take a fitness class or go to the gym. RIMAC and Main Gym offer a variety of fitness options throughout the day. As a bonus, the gym may not be as crowded during peak class times.
- Join a student organization or attend an event and meet other students with the same interests as you.
- Take time to find your favorite study spot on campus. Maybe you enjoy the action in Price Center or a quiet nook in one of the lounges. There are a number of spots to study outside of classrooms and the Library.

Reporting Options:
Sexual Assault, Dating Violence, Domestic Violence, Stalking

The University of California is committed to creating and maintaining a community where all individuals who participate in University programs and activities can work and learn together in an environment free of harassment, exploitation, or intimidation. Every member of the community should be aware that the University prohibits sexual harassment and sexual violence, and that such behavior violates both law and University policy.

There are reporting options available to someone who is a victim of sexual assault, relationship violence, and stalking. Reporting options include: Criminal, Civil, Administrative, and Non-Reporting. This handout provides a brief description of each option. Regardless of what option a victim chooses, CARE at the Sexual Assault Resource Center can provide free and confidential support as well as an explanation of each reporting option in detail.

CARE Campus Advocate:
- Can explain all of a victim’s options, accompany the victim throughout any reporting processes (should they choose to report), and assist with academic, housing or employment concerns.
- Is available to assist a victim 24/7.
- Can be with a victim during interviews, phone calls, line-ups, or any other proceedings that involve criminal, civil or administrative reports. If a victim is in a situation without the advocate, they have the right to wait until the advocate is present.

Criminal Reporting

It is a victim’s choice to report a crime. For the quickest response, call 911 to be connected to the nearest police department. Reporting to the police is an option at any time. If a victim chooses not to report the crime immediately, the report can still be made at a later time. Crimes may be reported anonymously and confidentially to the UC San Diego Police at 858-534-HELP (4357). A CARE Advocate can also offer free and confidential assistance with this process.

Civil Reporting

Filing a Civil Suit
A victim may choose to file a civil suit against the defendant whether or not criminal charges have been filed. A civil suit gives a victim an opportunity to recover actual damages. This may include compensation for medical expenses, lost wages, pain, suffering, and emotional distress. Contact CARE at the Sexual Assault Resource Center for free and confidential help with this process.

Obtaining a Protective/Restraining Order
A victim may also choose to obtain a protective/restraining order. Protective orders are civil court orders to protect victims who have experienced or are reasonably in fear of physical violence, sexual assault, or stalking by another individual. In California, one may obtain a domestic violence restraining order or a civil harassment restraining order. A CARE Advocate can also offer free and confidential assistance with this process.

For more information visit:
http://sexualviolence.ucsd.edu

http://warren.ucsd.edu
Reporting Options:
Sexual Assault, Dating Violence, Domestic Violence, Stalking

Reporting to UCSD Campus Administration

Any victim has the choice of reporting to the campus administration under UC San Diego policy. UC San Diego encourages anyone who has experienced sexual assault, relationship violence, or stalking to report an offense as soon as possible after its occurrence, in order for appropriate and timely action to be taken.

When an administrative complaint is made, the Office for the Prevention of Harassment & Discrimination (OPHD) conducts the investigation as to whether a violation of policy took place. For more information about administrative procedures, contact OPHD at (858) 534-8298.

A victim has the right to have a CARE Advocate present while making a complaint to campus administration. Contact CARE at the Sexual Assault Resource Center to speak confidentially and anonymously with a CARE Advocate who can explain more about your options and rights.

Non-Reporting Options

Victims may contact CARE at the Sexual Assault Resource Center, Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS), or Faculty Staff Assistance Program (FSAP) for more information, emotional support, and individual and group counseling.

If the victim would like to seek support off campus, the Center for Community Solutions (CCS) provides services to victims of sexual assault, relationship violence, and stalking in San Diego County.

Non-Investigative Reporting (NIR) for Sexual Assault Victims

A sexual assault victim has the option to have a Sexual Assault Forensic Exam (SAFE) (commonly referred to as "rape exam") without filing a police report. This is referred to as a Non-Investigative Report (NIR).

Student Health Services and Thornton Hospital DO NOT conduct SAFE/NIR Exams. UCSD students or employees who want to utilize the NIR option should contact CARE at the Sexual Assault Resource Center and a CARE Advocate can offer free and confidential help with this process.
UC San Diego Policy on Integrity of Scholarship

Integrity of scholarship is essential for an academic community. The University expects that both faculty and students will honor this principle and in so doing protect the validity of University intellectual work. For students, this means that all academic work will be done by the individual to whom it is assigned without unauthorized aid of any kind. Instructors, for their part, will exercise care in planning and supervising academic work so that honest effort will be upheld. Students are expected to complete the course in compliance with the instructor's standards.

No student shall engage in any activity that involves attempting to receive a grade by means other than honest effort; for example:

- No student shall knowingly procure, provide, or accept any unauthorized material that contains questions or answers to any examination or assignment to be given at a subsequent time.
- No student shall complete, in part or in total, any examination or assignment for another person.
- No student shall knowingly allow any examination or assignment to be completed, in part or in total, for himself or herself by another person.
- No student shall plagiarize or copy the work of another person and submit it as his or her own work.
- No student shall employ aids excluded by the instructor in undertaking course work or in completing any examination or assignment.
- No student shall alter graded class assignments or examinations and then resubmit them for re-grading.
- No student shall submit substantially the same material in more than one course without prior authorization.

For more information visit http://students.ucsd.edu/academics/academic-integrity/index.html.

Consequences of Cheating

What will be the consequences if I violate the Policy on Integrity of Scholarship?

The severity of the sanction depends on the nature of the Policy violation and your disciplinary history. You can receive consequences even if you didn't know you were violating the Policy. You can see a detailed overview of the sanctions by category of violation in our Administrative Sanctioning Guidelines: http://academicintegrity.ucsd.edu/_files/Sanctioning-Guidelines.pdf.

All new freshman, transfer, and Education Abroad Program reciprocity students at Warren are required to complete the online Academic Integrity Tutorial by a specified deadline. An email will be sent to all students with instructions to complete the tutorial. IF YOU DO NOT COMPLETE THE TUTORIAL BY THE SPECIFIED DEADLINE, A HOLD WILL BE PLACED ON YOUR ACADEMIC RECORD AND YOU WILL NOT BE ABLE TO ENGAGE IN ANY UNIVERSITY TRANSACTION INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, REGISTERING FOR CLASSES. Administrative holds are not automatically removed as soon as you complete the tutorial – it may take 24-48 hours to clear the hold.

Student Conduct

The Office of Student Conduct provides leadership for the student conduct process through its central coordinating, training, and advising role.

The office receives and processes student conduct complaints while offering consulting and advising to faculty and staff regarding potential (and/or actual) student conduct cases and incidents. Staff meet with students to resolve student conduct incidents and answer questions about the student conduct process. Additionally, they train and educate staff, faculty, and students about the student conduct process and student rights and responsibilities.

The most current version of the Student Conduct Code is located on the Office of Student Conduct website: http://studentconduct.ucsd.edu
Frequently Asked Questions About Student Conduct

I was just documented for violating the Student Conduct Code. What should I do?
Check your UC San Diego student email account on a regular basis. You may be receiving an emailed letter to schedule a meeting about the documentation. You can also check directly with the Office of Student Conduct, your college Dean’s office, or your Residential Life office.

Is studentconduct@ucsd.edu a valid email address?
Yes. All letters sent to you regarding your case are from this address, which is a valid UCSD email address. You must also enter your PID when you click on the letter link so that we can verify your identity.

I received a letter to schedule a meeting to discuss a Student Conduct Code violation. What should I do next?
Call the contact person listed in the letter within five days of the date of the letter to schedule an Administrative Resolution meeting with a Student Conduct Officer about the alleged violations.

Will I be able to review the incident report(s) and other evidence?
Yes, you have the right to review the incident report(s) and other evidence prior to the meeting or review. If you do not receive this information with your letter, please contact the person who sent you the letter or your Student Conduct Officer.

Can I have an advisor at the meeting with me?
Yes, you may have an advisor accompany you to an Administrative Resolution meeting or a Student Conduct Review. Advisors include A.S. Student Advocates, attorneys, and other students, faculty, or staff. However, only A.S. Student Advocates may take direct part in the meeting or review.

What happens at an Administrative Resolution meeting?
The Student Conduct Officer (likely your Dean of Student Affairs, Assistant Dean of Student Affairs, or an Assistant Director of Residence Life) will explain the Administrative Resolution process, your rights and responsibilities, and the alleged violations. You will explain your side of the incident and answer questions from the Student Conduct Officer. At the conclusion of the meeting, you will have the opportunity to accept responsibility for the alleged violations and the Student Conduct Officer will explain the potential sanctions.

What are possible sanctions?
Depending on the violation(s), possible sanctions include, but are not limited to, formal warning, educational programs, restitution, probation, suspension, and/or dismissal from the University. The Office of Student Conduct website (studentconduct.ucsd.edu) describes potential sanctions for a variety of violation types. Sanctions are designed to be consistent across colleges and residential areas. However, cases are evaluated on an individual basis and not subject to precedent as in the civil and criminal court systems.

How long can I be on probation or suspended from the University?
Depending on the incident and your student conduct record, you may be placed on probation anywhere from one quarter to the remainder of your tenure at UC San Diego. Suspensions range from one quarter to an indefinite period of time.

If I don’t complete my sanctions, what will happen?
A hold will be placed on your student account, which prevents you from registering for classes, ordering transcripts, or conducting other business with the University.

When will I receive the decision of the Student Conduct Officer?
Typically, you should receive a resolution letter via email from your Student Conduct Officer within ten days of the meeting. The resolution letter will contain a brief summary of the meeting, the alleged violations for which you accepted responsibility, and the imposed sanctions.

Can I appeal the sanctions?
Yes. You can submit a written appeal to the Office of Student Conduct within ten days of your receipt of the resolution letter.

What if I don’t want to accept responsibility for one or more alleged violations?
If you feel that you are not responsible for one or more alleged violations and the allegations are not dismissed by the Student Conduct Officer, you may request a Student Conduct Review. You can make this request directly to your Student Conduct Officer at the conclusion of the meeting.
What happens at a Student Conduct Review?
The Conduct Board or Review Officer will explain the process, your rights, and the alleged violations. You will have the opportunity to present information and witnesses supporting your case. The Board will ask additional questions to gain a greater understanding of the incident. You will also have the opportunity to question other witnesses invited to participate at the Review. The Chair or Review Officer will conclude the Review by explaining the next steps in the process.

When will I receive the decision of the Conduct Board or Review Officer?
After the Review, the Board or Review Officer will determine whether you are responsible for the alleged violations and if you are responsible, recommend fair and appropriate sanctions. The Board or Review Officer has ten business days to submit a Student Conduct Review Report to your Student Conduct Officer, who will determine the final sanctions if you are found responsible. For Reviews involving a suspension or dismissal for an undergraduate student, the Council of Deans of Student Affairs will determine the sanctions. If the Board or Review Officer finds you not responsible, you will be notified by the Student Conduct Officer within ten business days from receiving the report that the case is closed with no further consequence to you.

Can I appeal the decision and/or sanctions from the Review?
Yes. You can submit a written appeal to the Office of Student Conduct within ten days of your receipt of the decision from the Review. Per the Student Conduct Code, Section XVII (C), your appeal must be based upon one or more of the following grounds:
1. The decision is not supported by the findings;
2. There was unfairness in the proceedings that prejudiced the result (e.g. the denial of due process);
3. There is newly discovered evidence not known at the time of the Review that would have affected the result;
4. The sanction(s) imposed was grossly disproportionate to the violation committed.

If I appeal, do I have to complete the imposed sanctions?
Sanctions may be deferred during the appeals process, at the discretion of the Student Conduct Officer (individual students) or the Assistant Vice Chancellor – Student Life (student organizations), in consultation with the Director of Student Conduct. Check your decision letter for more details.

Will I appear before the individual or group reviewing the appeal?
Generally, you will not appear before the individual or group reviewing the appeal.

If I submit an appeal, how will I receive the appeal decision?
You will be notified in writing of the result of the appeal by the group or individual reviewing the appeal within ten business days of the date when the appeal was submitted. A brief statement explaining the basis of the decision will be included with this letter.

What is in my student conduct record?
Your student conduct record will generally contain the applicable incident report(s), meeting and decision letters, and other documents related to student conduct incidents you have been involved in while a UC San Diego student.

Are student conduct records confidential?
Yes, only certain University staff, including the Office of Student Conduct, your college Dean's Office, and/or Residential Life Office, has access to your student conduct records. You may, however, sign an authorization to release your student conduct records to another person or organization (e.g. parent/guardian or Study Abroad program).

How long are student conduct records kept and maintained?
In compliance with federal law, we keep and maintain student conduct records for seven years from the time of the incident. Records involving suspensions and dismissals from the University are kept and maintained permanently.

I have a student conduct record. How will this affect my graduate school application?
Typically, graduate schools will inquire about your student conduct record during the application process via a “Disciplinary Clearance Form”. Questions on these forms vary and your Dean will answer the questions in a way least detrimental to your application. Please consult with the Office of Student Conduct or your college Dean's Office to determine if you have a student conduct record and if so, what will be reported to a prospective graduate or professional school.

If I have questions about the student conduct process where should I go?
Contact the Office of Student Conduct, (858) 534-6225, located in the Student Services Center – Suite 510. Additional resources include your college Dean's Office, your Residential Life Office, the Office of Student Legal Services, and the A.S. Office of Student Advocacy.
Responsible Action Protocol (RAP)

The Responsible Action Protocol (RAP) has been developed with the intention of reducing the dangers associated with the overconsumption of alcohol and/or controlled substances, removing barriers to seeking medical assistance, and promoting community well-being and safety. Students in need of medical assistance will be referred by the Office of Student Conduct to meet with their Dean of Student Affairs or his/her designee and to discuss his/her participation in an appropriate educational program (e.g. CARRS, Pro-SAFE, etc.) in a timely manner.

Participation in any educational program as a result of a meeting with the student’s dean or his/her designee will not be noted on the student’s conduct record. However, when a student is involved in an additional alcohol or controlled substance related medical emergency within two calendar years after receiving protection under this Protocol, the subsequent incident will be treated as a second offense and will not be eligible for protection.

Records of all reports addressed by this Protocol will be maintained by the Office of Student Conduct.

Nothing in this Protocol will prevent an individual who is obligated by local, state or federal law from reporting, charging, or taking other action related to the possible criminal prosecution of any student or non-affiliate.

Students receiving medical assistance in an alcohol or controlled substance related medical emergency and students initiating medical assistance will not be subject to the formal student conduct process if all of the following apply:

1. The student requests OR another person contacts a House Advisor/Resident Advisor or other University Official (e.g. Police Officer, Residential Security Officer, etc.) for medical assistance on behalf of a student experiencing an alcohol or controlled substance related medical emergency;

2. No other major Student Conduct Code violations (including, but not limited to, disorderly conduct, distribution of controlled substances, hazing, physical assault, vandalism, etc.) were committed by the student during the same incident; AND

3. The student has not received protection under this protocol more than once in a two calendar year period.

Student Organizations and Groups

Student organization members hosting events are expected to seek prompt medical assistance in an alcohol or controlled substance related medical emergency. When student organization members use this protocol, the organization will not be processed through the student conduct process. Principal members of student organizations may be required to meet with the Director of Student Conduct or his/her designee or the Assistant Vice Chancellor for Student Life or his/her designee and, the organization may be required to participate in an appropriate educational program in a timely manner.
