Orientation

Transfer Orientation Program

The one-day Warren College Transfer Orientation Program is mandatory for all incoming students.

- September 23, 2019

The deadline to register for your Transfer Orientation Program at newstudent.ucsd.edu is July 5. If you register or make changes after the July 5 deadline, you will be charged a $25.00 change/late fee.

Orientation Leaders

At Orientation, all new students will be placed in a small group with an Orientation Leader (OL). OLs are current Warren College students who share their experiences, guide you through your Orientation Program, and help to prepare you for your transition to UC San Diego. Your OL will communicate with you via your UC San Diego email prior to Orientation.

Online Advising

If you have academic questions on college or major requirements, ask them through online advising on the New Student Site. Select the Online Advising tab and click on Ask a Question.

New Student Webinar

Warren College Academic Advising will be hosting webinars for new students in late July. An email will be sent with specific dates and times.

These one-hour webinars are presented for incoming Warren students. Information will be provided to help students prepare for their first quarter of enrollment. The webinar will be recorded and made available if you are unable to view it during the scheduled time.

Dates and Deadlines

July 1: Deadline for transcripts. If you have outstanding transcripts, request to have them sent immediately to the UC San Diego Office of Admissions.

July 5: Complete your Academic Background on the New Student Site at newstudent.ucsd.edu

July 15: Submit final test scores for ACT/SAT/AP/IB/TOEFL to the UC San Diego Office of Admissions. Visit the Transfer Timeline for specific dates and deadlines.

You will receive a series of email messages from the Warren College Academic Advising Office with information and resources to prepare you for online Fall Quarter enrollment.

Student Affairs

International Students

The Outreach Coordinators for International and Out-Of-State students is available to support your transition to UC San Diego. The two full-time staff and interns in the department work in the colleges to help students get acclimated to campus life and California culture. Our focus is on International and Out-Of-State students, but we also outreach to California students as well to create campus community and give students the opportunity to meet others from diverse cultures and backgrounds.

Transfer and Commuter Students

Both UCSD and Warren College offer a broad spectrum of services and programs to involve students in educational opportunities both in and outside the classroom. The Warren Transfer and Commuter Commission (WTCC) hosts a variety of community building, educational, and social programs throughout the year – including a highly popular Disneyland trip. Whether you live close to campus or commute from home, we invite you to learn more about some of the opportunities at Warren College on our website.

Reminders

Student Health Services Deadline

You must complete the Tuberculosis (TB) Screening Questionnaire on the Triton Checklist before July 15. If the screening is not completed, a hold will be placed on your account preventing you from registering for Fall Quarter classes. TB screening is a University admission requirement for ALL newly admitted students. For more information, visit the Student Health Services.

Student Two-Step Login

Two-step login is an added layer of protection for you and the University. Here is how it works:

- Step 1: Enter your username and password
- Step 2: Verify your identify via a secondary device. Most people will choose push notifications via a free smartphone app.

Two-step login will apply to most core applications you rely on, including WebReg, Degree Audit, Bill Pay, and more. It is already required for faculty and staff at UC San Diego. An optional usage period starts later this summer, and two-step login will be required in late October 2019. Check TritonLink in about one month for more information and registration details.
