WARREN COLLEGE

TOWARD A LIFE IN BALANCE

UC SAN DIEGO ADVISING SYSTEM

At UC San Diego, you have a variety of advisors to help you navigate our system.

Warren College Academic Advisors

Available to advise students on quarter planning, scheduling, graduation requirements, and connect students with resources inside and outside of Warren College. Warren College academic advisors also conduct workshops/webinars to provide guidance on a variety of topics, such as long term planning and remote learning resources. They will help you better understand what is required of you so you are successful at Warren College and at UC San Diego.

Department Advisors

Located in each academic department and assist in planning major and minor specific coursework. A large portion of your graduation requirements are in your major. Your major advisors will help you understand your major requirements and show you how the courses you have already taken may satisfy major requirements here at UC San Diego.

Career Advisors

Located in the Career Center off of Library Walk. They assist students with career exploration, graduate and professional school advising, offer career assessments, job fairs, and many other resources to get students connected and to prepare them for life after UC San Diego.

Internship Advisors

Located in the Academic Internship Program (AIP) office. AIP provides students with a variety of internship opportunities across many different career fields. Internships through AIP are taken for academic credit usually in your 3rd or 4th year.

International Advisors

Available to help international students become familiar with UC San Diego and can answer any questions about your visa or immigration status.

Keep in mind, it is your responsibility to reach out to the departments listed below. Be proactive and you will be successful here at UC San Diego!

ACADEMIC SUCCESS RESOURCES

Students are required to maintain a 2.0 GPA to be in good academic standing. Make sure to utilize the variety of support services dedicated to your success!

WARREN COLLEGE GE'S

If You Completed a Transfer Program

You have completed a Transfer Program if you fulfilled one of the following:
Intersegmental General Educational Transfer Curriculum (IGETC) from a California community college ○ Please be sure to have your IGETC certificate sent to UCSD Admissions separate from your official transcripts.
Intersegmental General Educational Transfer Curriculum - Partial (IGETC-P) from a California community college ○ Please be sure to have your partial IGETC certificate sent to UCSD Admissions separate from your official transcripts.
UC Reciprocity
Completion of the lower-division general education/breadth requirements from an accredited four-year institution or other transfer program - you must see a Warren academic advisor for verification.

If you have completed one of the above transfer programs you must complete:
Warren Writing (WCWP)100: Academic Writing	• Must be taken at UC San Diego for a letter grade. • If you are transferring without two approved writing courses, you may be required to take an additional writing course. See a Warren academic advisor for details.
Two 4-unit, Upper-Division Non-Contiguous Courses	• Courses may be chosen from the same discipline and the same department. • Courses must be taken through UC San Diego, another UC campus, or the UC Education Abroad Program. • Courses may be taken on a letter grade or Pass/Not Pass basis. • See Choosing Non-Contiguous GE Courses for more information.

WARREN COLLEGE GE'S

If You Did Not Complete a Transfer Program

Warren Writing (WCWP) 100: Academic Writing	• Must be taken at UC San Diego for a letter grade. • If you are transferring without two approved writing courses, you may be required to take an additional writing course. See a Warren academic advisor for details.
Ethics and Society - A two-course sequence: PHIL or POLI 27 and PHIL or POLI 28	• Completion of WCWP 10A and 10B is required to enroll in PHIL 27 or POLI 27 and PHIL 28 or POLI 28. • If you are unable to enroll please contact Warren Advising through the "Ask a question" tab in the VAC. • Both courses must be taken at UC San Diego for a letter grade.
Formal Skills	• Two courses in symbolic logic, computer programming, and/or statistics from the approved list of courses. • These courses may overlap with other applicable lower-division requirements and may be taken on a Pass/No Pass basis unless required on a graded basis for the major or other requirements. • AP/IB credit may apply, as well as completed, transferrable community college coursework.
Programs of Concentration (PofCs)/Area Studies	• All majors except B.S. Engineering majors must complete two Programs of Concentrations (PofCs); B.S. Engineering majors must complete two Area Studies. • PofCs/Area Studies must be non-contiguous (unrelated) to each other and to the major. • AP/IB credit may apply, as well as completed, transferrable community college coursework. AP/IB and community college coursework may only satisfy lower division requirements. • A minor may be used in lieu of a PofC/Area Study if the minor meets the College's rule on non-contiguity and non-overlap. • Watch Selecting PofC/Area Studies for additional information.

UNIVERSITY REQUIREMENTS

All UC San Diego students must complete the following University of California requirements:

UC Entry Level Writing Requirement (ELWR)
The University of California requires all undergraduate students to demonstrate a minimum proficiency in English composition.
You must complete ELWR prior to attending UC San Diego.
For additional information and guidelines, see the Analytical Writing Program website.

Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI)
A knowledge of diversity, equity, and inclusion is required of all UC San Diego undergraduate students.
This requirement is satisfied with a grade of at least C- or Pass (P) in one course on the UC San Diego-approved DEI list.

American History and Institutions (AHI)
All UC students must satisfy knowledge of American history and the principles of American institutions under the federal and state constitutions.
This requirement is met by: • A grade of C or better in an approved high school course in American history and/or American government • A score of 3 or higher on the Advanced Placement (AP) U.S. History exam • A passing mark in an approved UC San Diego course or approved transfer course
If you are on an F-1 or J-1 student visa at the time of graduation, you will be able to waive the AHI requirement
For additional options and guidelines, see the UCSD General Catalog.

A DEI course may overlap with any upper division or lower division major, minor, or general education course.
